COURSE DESCRIPTION

A survey of the history of Jerusalem in relation to the three Abrahamic faiths, focusing on its religious and symbolic value through history and today.

COURSE GOALS AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the semester students will know:
- The basic facts of the Jewish, Christian, and Muslim faith traditions and their relations through time
- Some of their most important theological concepts, being able to summarize them with the students’ own words and to identify their historical and contemporary relevance
- The history of Jerusalem and its importance for these traditions up to the present
- The role of Jerusalem in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, and
- The value of Jerusalem as a symbol for the three faiths
- The holy books of the three faith traditions
- The basics of their social justice traditions

By the end of the semester students:
- Will be able to do a critical reading and evaluation of the many different arguments related to the city of Jerusalem, with an attempt to separate facts from emotions
- Will have developed enough understanding and appreciation of each of the three faiths as to identify and criticize historical prejudice and media stereotypes
- Will understand the importance of protecting all cultural heritages and of detecting and criticizing the manipulation of archaeological evidence for ideological goals
- Will have developed their own ideas on how to bridge ethnic and religious divides to coexist peacefully
- Will have become aware of the richness and challenges of working together with class members from different cultural backgrounds by discussing ideas in class

Collection of Student Work for University-Wide Assessment

Saint Louis University - Madrid Campus is committed to excellent and innovative educational practices. In order to maintain quality academic offerings and to conform to relevant accreditation requirements, the Campus regularly assesses its teaching, services, and programs for evidence of student learning outcomes achievement. For this purpose anonymized representative examples of student work from all courses and programs are kept on file, such as assignments, papers, exams, portfolios, and results from student surveys, focus groups, and reflective exercises. Thus, copies of student work for this course, including written assignments, in-class exercises, and exams may be kept on file for institutional research, assessment and accreditation purposes. If students prefer that Saint Louis University - Madrid Campus does not keep their work on file, they need to communicate their decision in writing to the professor.

REQUIRED TEXTS
The Bible (for study purposes I recommend The New Oxford Annotated Bible with the Apocrypha, but any translation is fine)
The Qur'an (any translation)

Neusner, J. (ed.) Introduction to World Religions: Communities and Cultures (Nashville, Abingdon: 2010).

REFERENCE BIBLIOGRAPHY

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
The final grade will be based on the following percentages:

- Class participation: 10%
- Mid-term exam: 30%
- Journal: 30%
- Final exam: 30%

1. Class participation is a part of the final grade. Active participation includes attending class regularly, doing the readings assigned for each class, being able to present and discuss the assigned readings, doing any class-related homework the instructor asks students to do, answering the questions posed by the professor in class, asking and discussing content-related questions when appropriate, and being considerate to one’s classmates, which includes not interrupting and/or mocking them, and taking one's fair share of discussion time. As a general guideline, students who participate regularly and actively in a way that shows meaningful engagement with the material may receive a participation grade of A. Students with good attendance but less engaged participation may receive a grade of B. Students who are frequently absent, rarely participate, and/or show inconsiderate behavior, may receive a grade of C, D or F, depending on the case. The instructor takes frequent notes on students' participation, so after three of four weeks into the course, you can ask her how you are doing in this respect at any point.

2. Students will take a mid-term exam on February 28 and a final exam on May 9. Study guidelines will be provided for each exam two weeks before the given exam is due.

3. Students will write a double-spaced, 12-16 page long journal recording and commenting eight current written or taped news related to the city of Jerusalem according to the guidelines the instructor will provide in class. Students will submit article 1 of the journal on January 29 (1/6 of the journal grade), articles 2 and 3 on February 14 (2/6 of the journal grade), articles 4 and 5 on March 19 (2/6 of the journal grade) and article 6 on April 4 (1/6 of the journal grade).

4. All students will complete the on-line course evaluation at the end of the semester.

Please, note that all students need to meet with the instructor on a one-to-one basis on January 22-31. Not doing so will decrease the student's participation grade.

All due assignments must be submitted at the beginning of the class on the due date. Submitting an assignment at the end of the class of the due date will count as submitting it late and therefore will be penalized as such. If for any reason a student could not submit his/her assignment on time or make it to the final exam, he/she should contact the instructor BEFORE the due date to discuss what the options are (the only exception to this are documentally justified medical emergencies).

All students in this class have a slu e-mail account (i.e. an e-mail address ending in slu.edu)—both their Banner and SLU-Global accounts are linked to it. Therefore, all e-mail communications between the instructor and the students will be take place by using the slu email system. It is each student's responsibility to get to know his/her slu e-mail address, to check it works on the first day of class (R Jan. 10), to check it regularly (or to have the mail from this address forwarded to a preferred account which is checked regularly), and to speak with the people at the Registrar’s Office (in Padre Arrupe Hall) if there is any problem with it.
For bibliography for the assignments, please make sure you check the SLU book catalogue (at http://spain.slu.edu/academics/library/index.html) as well as the ATLA, JSTOR and WorldCat ) databases (at http://libraries.slu.edu/databases/databases.php#dbname). To use the latter, you will need your SLU-Madrid login and password. If you do not know or have them yet, go to the Registrar's Office at Padre Arrupe Hall and ask for them there. Keep in mind that many of the articles and books found in the ATLA and WorldCat (FirstSearch) Database may be retrieved in Madrid at the libraries of the Universidad Complutense, Universidad Autónoma, Universidad Pontificia de Comillas and/or the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas. But for saving time, look for bibliographic resources on the internet first. For the history of Jerusalem you can also find useful articles at Bible Review and Biblical Archaeology Review and Archaeology Odyssey (http://www.basarchive.org). These are not scholarly journals but popular magazines. However, the authors who write in them are scholars and many of the articles are summarized versions of similar, more detailed articles in scholarly journals. So you can use their articles, especially if you do not have access to the scholarly journal where the original version is published.

GRADING SYSTEM

The grading scale is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Score Range</th>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>93-100</td>
<td>A</td>
<td>Excellent understanding of subject matter and mastery of the skills of the course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>90-92</td>
<td>A-</td>
<td>-</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>87-89</td>
<td>B+</td>
<td>-</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>83-86</td>
<td>B</td>
<td>- Good understanding of the subject matter and deployment of the skills of the course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>80-82</td>
<td>B-</td>
<td>-</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>76-79</td>
<td>C+</td>
<td>- Minimally satisfactory understanding of the subject matter and deployment of the skills of the course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>71-75</td>
<td>C</td>
<td>-</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>68-70</td>
<td>C-</td>
<td>- Less than satisfactory understanding of the subject matter or less than satisfactory deployment of the skills of the course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60-67</td>
<td>D</td>
<td>-</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0 -59</td>
<td>F</td>
<td>- Basic failure in understanding of the subject matter or basic inability to deploy the skills of the course</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The following are general principles concerning grading standards and criteria at SLU:

A range = Superior, exceptional, outstanding with evidence of critical, informed, and creative inquiry that deepens their understanding of essential concepts. This means the student demonstrates depth of insight beyond what is normally expected. Carefully nuanced reasoning and writing, free from material, structural and grammatical error are presupposed in this grade.

B range = Good, ready command of full range of concepts and shows some critical, informed, and creative inquiry that deepens their understanding of essential concepts. This means the student has produced an assignment that is free from material, structural and grammatical errors.

C range = Acceptable, satisfactory ability to describe overall picture and essential concepts. This means the student has completed the assignment in a manner involving no significant errors. Material may not be free from structural and grammatical errors. Nuanced reasoning is not demonstrated.
D range = Below normal expectation. Reasoning is neither carefully nuanced nor coherently presented; writing is insufficient in depth of insight and/or use of texts; presentation is not free from material error in structure, spelling and grammar. This means that the student failed to respond adequately to the assignment and its intentions.

F = Unsatisfactory. The student failed to respond to the assignment: 1) failed to turn in the assignment; 2) did not respond to the assignment as given; 3) submitted work so thoroughly flawed as to indicate that the student did not make a serious effort, 4) plagiarism or cheating involved.

E-MAIL

All students in this class have a slu e-mail account (i.e. an e-mail address ending in slu.edu)—both their Banner and SLU-Global accounts are linked to it. Therefore, all e-mail communications between the instructor and the students will take place by using the slu e-mail system. It is each student's responsibility to get to know his/her slu e-mail address, to make sure it works on the first day of class (R Jan. 10), to check it regularly (or to have the mail from this address forwarded to a preferred account which he/she checks regularly), and to speak with the people at the Registrar's Office (in Padre Arrupe Hall) if there is any problem with it.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS AND LEARNING RESOURCES

In recognition that people learn in a variety of ways and that learning is influenced by multiple factors (e.g., prior experience, study skills, learning disability), resources to support student success are available on campus. Students who think they might benefit from these resources can find out more about:

- Course-level support (e.g., faculty member, departmental resources, etc.) by asking your course instructor.
- University-level support (e.g., tutoring/writing services, Disability Services) by visiting the Academic Dean's Office (San Ignacio Hall) or by reviewing the Academic Resources website online.

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations must contact Disability Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Once successfully registered, the student also must notify the course instructor that they wish to access accommodations in the course. Please contact Disability Services at disabilityservices-madrid@slu.edu or +915 54 58 58, ext. 230 for an appointment. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries. Once approved, information about the student's eligibility for academic accommodations will be shared with course instructors via email from Disability Services. For more information about academic accommodations, more information is available on the SLU-Madrid webpage.

Note: Students who do not have a documented disability but who think they may have one are encouraged to contact Disability Services.

UNIVERSITY STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is honest, truthful and responsible conduct in all academic endeavors. The mission of Saint Louis University is "the pursuit of truth for the greater glory of God and for the service of humanity." Accordingly, all acts of falsehood demean and compromise the corporate endeavors of teaching, research, health care and community service via which SLU embodies its mission. The University strives to prepare students for lives of personal and professional integrity, and therefore regards all breaches of academic integrity as matters of serious concern.
The governing University-level Academic Integrity Policy can be accessed on the Provost’s Office website here. Additionally, SLU-Madrid has posted its academic integrity policy online. As a member of the University community, you are expected to know and abide by these policies, which detail definitions of violations, processes for reporting violations, sanctions and appeals.

The professor will review these matters during the first weeks of the term. Please direct questions about any facet of academic integrity to your faculty, the chair of the department of your academic program or the Academic Dean of the Madrid Campus.

ELECTRONIC DEVICE POLICY

Laptops, tablets and mobile phones are acceptable for class work. However, the use of these tools for things such as e-mailing, chatting, text messaging and surfing sites not related to the class is not acceptable and will be penalized (see below).

CLASS ATTENDANCE POLICY AND PENALTIES

- Repeated unjustified absences: one full letter of the participation grade will be decreased for each three unjustified absences (e.g. from B to C). Please, note that only medical emergencies count as justified absences.
- Being late: one third of the participation grade letter will be decreased for each two days in which this situation takes place (e.g. from B- to C+).
- Lacking knowledge of the assigned readings and/or not having done assigned homework: one third of the participation grade letter will be decreased for each day in which any of these two situations takes place (e.g. from B- to C+).
- Unauthorized use of mobile phones, tablets or laptops in class: one third of the participation letter will be decreased each time this happens. Unauthorized use includes e-mailing, chatting, text messaging, and surfing internet sites not related to the class.
- Not visiting with the professor in her office on Jan. 22-31: one third of the assignment letter will be decreased.
- Submitting an assignment late: one third of the assignment letter will be decreased for each day of delay in submitting it. After one week no late submissions will be accepted and the assignment will be graded as 0 (=F).
- Submitting an assignment in the middle of or at the end of the class when it is due: one third of the assignment letter will be decreased.
- Students who missed the introduction on the first day of class (Jan. 10) must stay after class on Jan. 22 for fifteen minutes. Not doing so will be penalized: one third of the student's participation grade will be decreased.

Please, note: If for any reason a student could not submit his/her assignment on time or make it to the final exam, he/she should contact the instructor BEFORE the due date to discuss the situation (the only exception to this are justified medical emergencies).

BASIC NEEDS SECURITY STATEMENT

Students in personal or academic distress and/or who may be specifically experiencing challenges such as securing food or difficulty navigating campus resources, and who believe this may affect their performance in the course, are encouraged to contact Marta Maruri, SLU-Madrid’s Director of Student Life (marta.maruri@slu.edu or 915 54 58 58, ext. 213) for support. Furthermore, please notify the instructor if you are comfortable in doing so, as this will enable them to assist you with finding the resources you may need.
UNIVERSITY TITLE IX STATEMENT

Saint Louis University and its faculty are committed to supporting our students and seeking an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you have encountered any form of sexual misconduct (e.g. sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, domestic or dating violence), we encourage you to report this to the University. If you speak with a faculty member about an incident of misconduct, that faculty member must notify SLU's Title IX deputy coordinator, Marta Maruri, whose office is located on the ground floor of Padre Rubio Hall, Avenida del Valle, 28 (marta.maruri@slu.edu; 915-54-5858, ext. 213) and share the basic fact of your experience with her. The Title IX deputy coordinator will then be available to assist you in understanding all of your options and in connecting you with all possible resources on and off campus.

If you wish to speak with a confidential source, you may contact the counselors at the SLU-Madrid's Counseling Services on the third floor of San Ignacio Hall (counselingcenter-madrid@slu.edu; 915-54-5858, ext. 230) or Sinews Multipletherapy Institute, the off-campus provider of counseling services for SLU-Madrid (www.sinews.es; 917-00-1979). To view SLU-Madrid's sexual misconduct policy and for resources, please our policy posted online. Additional information is available at the University's website “SLU is here for you.”
